Will dated 7 August 1888:—

I, The Right Honorable Angela Georgina Baroness Burdett-Coutts wife of William Lehman Ashmead Bartlett Burdett-Coutts Esquire M.P. of Stratton Street, Piccadilly and of the Strand and of Holly Lodge Highgate all in the County of Middlesex hereby revoke all former Testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me and declare this to be my last will and Testamentary disposition which shall take effect so far as shall be necessary to give effect to the directions declarations and bequests hereinafter or in any Codicil hereto contained in pursuance of the powers in that behalf vested in me by various Indentures of Settlement executed in contemplation of my marriage with my said husband I declare that I am a member of the Church of England as now by law established. Whereas I have founded and endowed Churches in various parts of England and I have endowed Bishoprics and Archdeaconries in the Colonies and Dependencies of the United Kingdom. Now I hereby declare that if at any time hereafter the Church of England shall be disestablished or separate itself from the State the object I had in view in providing such endowments and gifts will be rendered nugatory. And I further direct that if under such circumstances the mode of dealing with endowments shall depend upon the wishes of the Founder my wishes (so far as I can lawfully give such direction) that such endowments and gifts so made by me as aforesaid shall revert to and form part of my residuary personal estate. And I hereby expressly declare that such endowments and gifts were not made by me to any Community as a Spiritual Body or as an Independent Voluntary Association but to the Protestant Church of England as now by law established under the Supremacy of the Crown being Protestant. If the Church of England shall at any time hereafter be separated from the State as the Irish integral portion thereof has been or shall separate itself from the State then my wish is and I expressly declare that any transfer or appropriation of my endowments and gifts to such Church so separated or to any new or other Ecclesiastical Body will be contrary to my intention as Donor and Founder. But without imposing any trust or obligation whatsoever on my Legatees or representatives who may recover such endowments and gifts I wish to express my hope that they will regard the feelings which prompted me to make such endowments and gifts and will if they shall recover my said endowments and gifts or any of them appropriate the same or the portion so recovered to such objects as may to them seem best calculated to promote the principles of the Protestant Reformation Civil liberty and social well being. And I give and devise all my estate and effects real and personal wheresoever and whatsoever to my said husband his heirs executors administrators and assigns absolutely. And I appoint him Executor of this my Will. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight — Burdett-Coutts — Signed and declared by the above named Angela Georgina Baroness Burdett-Coutts the Testatrix as and for her last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in her presence at her request and in the presence of each other (both being present together at the same time) hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses — G.
